Public holidays 2021

A number of public holidays will take place in the coming months. Some are collective days off and others are not. In principle, no work will be done on collective days off. With exception, work can be done when the manager claims this is necessary due to operating conditions. See an overview of the public holidays below.

Public holidays, collective days off:

- Easter Monday: Monday April 5th, 2021
- King's Day: Tuesday April 27th, 2021
- Ascension Day: Thursday May 13th, 2021
- Whit (Pentecost) Monday: Monday May 24th, 2021

Public holidays, but not days off:

- Good Friday: Friday April 2nd, 2020
- Liberation Day: Wednesday May 5th, 2020

Taking holidays

We have been facing strict corona measures again since the beginning of autumn and in the meantime we continue working the best we can. However, taking a vacation is very important for our health: to be able to relax and to take some distance from work. We therefore ask you not to save holidays, but to enjoy them. We do not know when the measures will be relaxed and what this actually means.

So don't wait and plan your holidays and days off this spring and coming summer months. These holidays may be filled in differently than we are used to, but it remains - as always - important to enjoy a day off or holiday every now and then. The aim is to use all holidays in the current calendar year.
